Massachusetts Superior Court Rule 9A was amended effective November 1, 2018. Although the Rule has been amended several times in the last few years, the most recent changes are big. Everything from cross-motions to summary judgment to basic formatting have been revised. Superior Court practitioners who fail to familiarize themselves with these changes risk having motions returned or denied.

Victoria Fuller breaks down how these changes should streamline and improve Superior Court motion practice in the article, "Major Changes to Superior Court Motion Practice."
