Partner

Stamford, CT

t: 914.487.7333

Tom has extensive experience representing financial institutions. Clients rely on his knowledge of market standards and industry developments to negotiate and close complex commercial loan transactions.

OVERVIEW

Tom Infurna brings more than three decades of experience in commercial real estate law and asset-based finance to his representation of financial institutions. He focuses on permanent and construction financing, mezzanine, bridge and term loans, mortgage loan sales and purchases, distressed debt portfolios, loan restructurings, workouts and foreclosures. Tom's clients include commercial, investment and savings banks, conduit lenders, life insurance and capital companies, pension fund advisors and real estate investors and developers.

Tom handles complex transactions such as commercial mortgages for securitization and portfolio investment, loan syndications, purchase and sale of commercial real estate and distressed debt, including financing of loan acquisitions, and franchise finance. In tune with industry developments, Tom advises clients on LIBOR transition issues, including loan documentation requirements, and other changes. His extensive experience representing lenders and knowledge of market standards has led to his frequent engagement by borrowers to negotiate and close complex commercial loan transactions.

Prior to joining White and Williams, Tom led the Real Estate Finance practice at Eckert Seamans, and was a partner in the Real Estate Finance group with Thacher Proffitt & Wood.
