

America's Brick-and-Mortar Retail Stores – A Vanishing Act in an Online Shopping World

Philadelphia, PA
11.2.17

Panelists from the banking, brokerage, developer and appraisal communities share their views and answer questions at "America's Brick-and-Mortar Retail Stores - A Vanishing Act in an Online Shopping World." The panel discussion covers how higher retail store closures nationally and in the Philadelphia region may impact:

- The development and repositioning of shopping centers and malls
- Credit availability, rates and security on the financing of retail properties
- Retail leasing rates, tenant improvement allowances and other leasing terms
- Retail property values, cap rates and availability

Panelists

Steve Ostrow, White and Williams LLP
Joe Pasquarella, Newmark Knight Frank
Bob Steiner, Edgmont Property Group
Maulin Vidwans, White and Williams LLP
Judson Wambold, Tactix Real Estate Advisors, LLC

Thursday, November 2, 2017 | 8:00 AM - 10:00 AM
White and Williams LLP
1650 Market Street, Suite 1800
Philadelphia, PA 19103

KEY ATTORNEYS

Steven E. Ostrow

PRACTICE AREAS

Commercial Finance
Distressed Loan and Asset Sales
Finance
Financial Restructuring and Bankruptcy
General Commercial Real Estate
Leasing
Loan Modifications, Restructurings,
Foreclosures and Asset Recovery
Real Estate
Structured Finance Workouts and Dispositions

